Perilous pursuit: The hunt is on for The Prince in season 2 of 'Six'

By K.A. Taylor TV Media

For much of the western world, war is either something of the past or something happening far away. Acts of wartime heroism and sacrifice are honored periodically throughout the year, but seldom are they deeply reflected upon.

Television and films have long tried to bring the realities of war to those who will never experience it themselves. Notable small-screen attempts include "M*A*S*H" and "Band of Brothers," but these seldom possess the grit found in bigscreen depictions. 2017 saw the exception to this, with the premiere of History's "SIX," which has its season 2 premiere appropriately airing on Monday, May 28: Memorial Day.

"SIX" is a high-intensity, highstakes drama that takes its inspiration from the real-life SEAL Team Six, a prominent component of the U.S. Armed Forces military division focused on counterterrorism. Each episode delves into the split-second decisions that members of SEAL Team must make, and how those decisions have a lasting effect both for the team members involved and for the surrounding community. Although the team isn't adverse to providing aid if possible, the mission at hand is always top of mind, with the nation's security of primary importance.

SEAL Team Six is comprised of quite a diverse cast. Barry Sloane "Longmire") is Joe "Bear" Graves, the team's senior chief special warfare operator. Providing support are Kyle Schmid ("Being Human") as Alex Caulder and Juan Pablo Raba ("Narcos") as Ricky "Buddha" Ortiz. Rounding out the cast are Javlen Moore ("Bad Moms." 2016) as Armin Khan and Edwin Hodge ("Sleepy Hollow") as Robert Chase III, fellow special warfare operators. After the events of season 1, SEAL Team Six required a new member, found in Eric Ladin's ("Bosch") role as special warfare operator first class, Trevor.

Season 1 of "SIX" wasted little time wading into the moral grey zone of war, with senior chief special warfare operator Richard "Rip" Taggart (Walton Goggins, "The Hateful Eight," 2015) quickly reduced to former senior chief special warfare operator after shooting a man who had claimed to have American citizenship. A few years later, while earning a living working in private security at a Nigerian school for girls, Rip was taken hostage, prompting his former team to find and rescue him. The team's relentless hunt did not go unrewarded, but a betrayal ultimately resulted in a violent assault on Rip, filling fans with unease as they desperately longed to know the character's fate.

If the trailers and promos are any indication, it does appear that Rip is still alive — for now, at least, as he appears to be comatose. Season 2 finds the team on the hunt for the man behind Rip's shooter, a powerful figure known as "The Prince" (Nikolai Nikolaeff, "Daredevil"). The Prince is fully aware of SEAL Team's quest for vengeance, but he will not hold back or compromise on his own personal desires, seemingly fearless in the face of the six.

While Trevor may be the latest member of the SEAL team, Laden isn't the only fresh face in season 2. Olivia Munn ("Miles from Tomorrowland") plays the role of CIA operations officer Gina Cline, who seemingly has a tense past with some members of the team. While little is known about Gina pre-premiere, she appears to be a means of communication for the team, able to press captive terrorists into providing the information required to help locate and take down The Prince. Her fearless, determined spirit makes her a formidable ally for the team, but for them to truly succeed together, trust must be established.

Much of the show's success thus far stems from its gritty and authentic portrayal of covert military operations, particularly in terms of how the characters battle with their own sense of duty and morality. Rip's actions right at the start of the series exemplifies this. During a promo spot for "SIX," Goggins noted that Rip's decision to shoot was merely him "reacting to the trauma he's been under over the course of his time in the service." Additionally, "SIX" doesn't shy away from complicating traditional notions of friend and foe.

Even those initially seen as villainous can have understandable motives, and for Goggins this is essential. Viewers may have wanted to side with Rip, but Goggins believes that it was "as important to him to tell [his captor's] story as it was to tell [his own] story." Fleshing out both the terrorists and the SEAL Team members may put some at odds with the show, but such an act holds much significance in times like ours, when hero and villain are often simply a matter of circumstance and perspective.

In humanizing warfare and conflict, "SIX" challenges viewers not to forgive the violent actions of others, but to perhaps consider the trauma that may have led to someone committing such acts. The story always keeps SEAL Team Six at the forefront, but in doing so, it also reveals that even the toughest of soldiers battle internal emotions and are weighed down by the endless onslaught of despair, doubt and aggression. Redeeming moments are found when the team can conquer its tasked mission, validating the uncertainty of actions past and promising a more rewarding future.

Discover if the team has what it takes to locate and take out The Prince — in honor of Rip — when "SIX" returns for its second season on Monday, May 28, on History.

French Open

WRAL 6 WECT 6 Noon

The best tennis players in the world come together to compete in this year's French Open, the second of four annual Grand Slam tournaments. It is currently the only Grand Slam event held on clay courts, which is challenging for even top players.

Instinct

wвтw 13 8:00 р.m.

Dylan (Alan Cumming) and Lizzie (Bojana Novakovic) investigate the case of a woman shot outside a community center in this new episode. Under pressure from the media and special interest groups, the mayor asks them to solve the case in 24 hours.

Larry (Lawren) and Jennifer in "Lost in Transition"

Deception

WTVD (1) WPDE (15) 9:00 p.m.

As a special two-hour season finale event kicks off, the team faces off against the Mystery Woman in a battle of dueling deceptions. However, just when Cameron (Jack Cutmore-Scott) thinks he has her, she unleashes a game-changing twist.

Lost in Transition TLC 10:05 p.m.

Couples grapple with their new reality when husbands reveal that they identify as a different gender in a new episode of this docu-series. The families share their deeply personal struggles as the husbands transition to female.

Hope (Summer Fontana) embarks on a dangerous mission after she learns how to get Hayley (Phoebe Tonkin) back in this new episode. Elsewhere, Klaus (Joseph Morgan) asks Caroline (Candice King) for help when he learns what Hope is up to.

Carly Hughes stars in "American Housewife"

American Housewife

WTVD (1) WPDE (15) 9:30 p.m.

Katie (Katy Mixon) is afraid that Greg's (Diedrich Bader) book launch might not go well in this rebroadcast. To boost his confidence about the whole thing, she gets Doris (Ali Wong) and Angela (Carly Hughes) to write glowing reviews of the book online.

Reverie

WRAL 6 WECT 6 10:00 p.m.

When users refuse to leave a virtual reality program, former hostage negotiator and human behavior expert Mara Kint (Sarah Shahi) is called in to help in the premiere of this drama. The cast also includes Dennis Haysbert and Kathryn Morris.
